JURY AWARDS HEAVY DAMAGES FOR DEATH

Of Mae Easton, Killed In Auto Wreck Last August

A verdict for $4000 was rendered in circuit court here Wednesday against Barnes Brothers, of Beaver Dam, in a suit of the administrator of Mae Easton, deceased, against said defendants, on account of the killing of the deceased by a car belonging to Barnes Brothers. In an automobile wreck, on the Beaver Dam pike, in August of last year.

At the time of the accident Miss Easton was riding in a car, driven by Dorris Martin. The Barnes car, driven by Carlisle Oldham, it was alleged, was on the wrong side of the road, which accounted for the collision. Miss Easton's death was caused by a broken windshield cutting a jagular vein.

This is the first judgement ever awarded in an Ohio county court for death or injury due to automobile accident, and it was in fact the first serious accident to occur in the county.

The public will sympathize with both the family of the deceased and the defendants in the suit. Barnes Brothers were in no way personally responsible for the accident, however liable the law may hold them for the action of their agent. It may be justly said that the blame for the whole matter rests upon the heads of the public for its failure to enforce the law governing drivers of automobiles. It appears from the evidence in this case that the driver of neither car was conforming to the law. A few prosecutions for minor offenses might have prevented the major one.

For the public's information we repeat in substance a part of Judge Slack's instruction to the jury, in regard to the law governing the drivers of automobiles.

He said it was the duty of the driver to have his machine under control (especially applicable to making sharp turns in the road and when meeting or passing other machines,) to give notice of his approach, to have kept a lookout ahead for vehicles on the highway, to operate at reasonable speed, to reasonably have turned his machine to the right side of the road and to have reduced his speed to not more than fifteen miles an hour. He said it was the duty of the driver to give warning with a proaching the top of the hill or at horn, bell or other device when any point where he could not see the road in front of him for a distance of 300 feet.

THE EAGLE'S CLAW.

It is always a painful task to have to severely criticize a fellow member of our craft, but we must rise to the defense of an ancient and honorable friend. The eagle's claw is merciful compared to an inexcusable and irreparable exposure of our friend, by editor Greep. His crime is nothing less than peaching upon uncle Alex; uncle Alex who eats right across the table from editor Greep, uncle Alex, who hurls the editor to mud fro on his preaching and courting tours; uncle Alex who, like himself, needs a helmsman and comforter. What if uncle Alex does take a vacation, and go auto-riding in the seductive twilight hours, and what of it if the snap of romance rises anew in the man passing through life's middle watch? What of it? There are some things too sacred to be paraded in the columns of a newspaper; some things that only an enemy would dare to mention above a whisper, and uncle Alex's twilight rides is one of them. Shame on you, Greep, to thus attempt to tear, with cruel hands, uncle Alex's play house down.

RECENT WEDDINGS.

John Brooks and Enla Chancellor, both of Dundee, were married at the court house Saturday afternoon, Rev. Russell Walker officiating. Mr. Brooks was recently discharged from the military service, but has re-enlisted. He has been stationed in New Jersey and will return to that point within a few days. He is 32 and his wife 18 years old. We understand the wedding followed a three days courtship. Mr. Brooks returned to camp Monday.

Elijah Martin, of Olaton, and Nellie Foreman, of Narrows, were married by Rev. Joseph Acton, at the latter's residence Sunday. Mr. Martin is 39 and Miss Foreman 25 years of age. Miss Foreman was a daughter of Mr. E. D. Foreman, a farmer, of Narrows. This is Mr. Martin's fourth venture in matrimony. The editor of this paper wrote Mr. Martin's first marriage license, twenty years ago, and signed his marriage bond at his recent marriage.

Sam Collins and Annie Wright (col.) were married at Rockport, Tuesday. Sam is 32 and Annie 27. First trial of each in the matrimonial lottery.

H. L. Johnson 23, Centertown, and Katie Boyd 21, Centertown, were married at the home of the bride, yesterday.

J. H. Hines and Lillie Mariah Love, colored, both of Echols, were married at the county clerk's office, Wednesday. Esquire Quint Brown performed the ceremony. J. H. was a widower by the event of death and Lillie Mariah was widowed by a judgement of court.

FRUIT AND CROPS.

The damage to fruit from the frosts of last week is difficult to estimate just yet, according to county agent Hrowder. Pears and some of the smaller fruits are almost entirely ruined. Grape buds were generally killed, but the vines will send out new shoots and some grapes will result. Tobacco plants were not protected by canvas were killed, but practically all beds were under canvas. The extent of the damage to both the apple and peach crops is uncertain, but heavy dropping later in the season is expected. Irish potatoes will grow out again, but the vines will branch too heavily and the crop will yield less because of the damage. Beans and some other garden vegetables are killed outright and many of those not killed will have their yield seriously effected. Wheat seems to have stood the freeze without material damage. In some instances young clover shows the effect of the freeze, but Mr. Browder thinks the damage will not be noticeable. Farmers are late with their spring work, and very little corn is planted. Stock in fine condition, except distemper is reported in some sections of the county, among horses. It is said to be most prevalent in those communities where farmers have recently bought western horses.

OHIO COUNTY'S 1919 ASSESSMENT FOR TAXES

Official certification of Ohio county's assessment of property for taxable purposes, for the present year, has been transmitted to the Local Authorities, the summary of which is as follows:

Total assessed value of live stock, $1,565,190.
All other property assessed, $9,346,654.
Less exemptions on live stock, $933,210.
Total assessed value of live stock, $1,565,190.
Less exemptions from live stock, $631,980.
Live stock subject to taxation, $933,210.
All other property assessed, $9,346,654.
Total assessment, subject to taxation, $10,279,864.
Tax on live stock @ 10c, $933.21
Tax on other property @ 40c, $37,386.62.
Total tax due the state, $38,319.83
Intangible personal property, $684,012.
Manufacturing machinery, $29,730.
Agricultural implements, $199,580.
Raw Material at plant, $2,200.
Total exempt from Local taxation, $915,522.
Total amount subject to County tax, $9,364,342.
At 50c., the county rate, $46,821.71.

TO DOG OWNERS.

Dog owners who have not taken out license tags should beware. The state tax commission is demanding of the sheriff that he kill all dogs that have not been tagged, and will take action against the sheriff if he does not perform the duty. If the law is an unjust one enacted it to the legislature that enacted it, but you have no just criticism against the sheriff who must perform the office of enforcing it or himself pay a heavy penalty for not doing so.

ROAD BUILDERS MEET AT THE COURT HOUSE

An interesting road meeting was held at the court house Monday night. Call for the meeting was not sent out until 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, but a good crowd turned out. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss ways and means for building Ohio county's section of the Owensboro and Bowling Green federal post road.

The meeting was organized by electing Judge John B. Wilson chairman, Itowan Holbrook vice-chairman and Otto Martin secretary. Another meeting was held at the court house last night, but too late for report in this issue. Other meetings will be held from time to time, both in Hartford and in the principal towns of the county through which the highway will pass.

A great deal of enthusiasm was manifested at the meeting Monday night, and confidence was freely expressed that the road would be built. The total cost of the road through the county will be about $200,000, only forty per cent, or $80,000 will have to be paid by the county, the remainder being paid by the nation and state. Much of the county's part of the expense of the road will have to be paid for by private subscription, and it is believed the towns and land owners along the proposed route will freely contribute the money. The route from Hartford to Cromwell will follow the road now established, but it is not yet determined whether it will approach Green river at Borah's or Annis' ferry. Contributions of land owners on that section will determine that part of route. On account of indisposition of land owners, along the route from Reda to Pleasant Ridge, to contribute the right of way and other assistance it is probable the post road will be established by way of Hefflin and Nuckols. Land owners along the latter mentioned route offer, not only to furnish the right of way, but to contribute $20,000 toward building the road. Report of the progress of these meetings will be reported from week to week until final arrangements for constructing the highway are completed.

FORDSVILLE TEACHERS.

The school board of the Fordsville graded school district has elected the faculty for the ensuing year, except the assistant in the High School work. The teachers elected are. Superintendent, Prof. Warren Peyton; 7th and 8th grades, J. W. O'Dell; 5th and 6th grades, Stanley Murphey; 3rd and 4th grades, Hortense Morrison; 1st and 2nd grades, Myrtle Armendt; Music, Emma Johnson.

HARTFORD WOODMEN REDUCE INITIATORY FEE

From this date, until July first, next, Hartford Camp No. 202, W. O. W., will receive petitions with an initiatory fee of $2.00 instead of $6.50, as heretofore charged. This $2.00 fee pays for the medical examination and certificate fee, and covers all charges for complete initiation.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

The Louisville Courier Journal and Times Wednesday carried a forecast of the Republican state ticket, which they declared was finally and forever settled. However, it is but fair to remind these journals that a convention at Lexington, and later a state primary, must O. K. their predictions. The ticket as made up by these Democratic prophets gives all of Kentucky west of Louisville but a single candidate, Prof. Green, and it is our guess, from personal interviews with Prof. Green, that he will not be a candidate. The ticket forecast follows: Governor Edwin P. Morrow, Somerset.

Lt-Governor Thurston Ballard, Louisville.
Auditor John J. Craig, Covington.
Treasurer James Wallace, Irvington.
Attorney General S. S. Willis, Ashland.

Secretary of State John M. Perkins, Frankfort.
Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna, Shelbyville.
Superintendent Public Instruction R. P. Green, Bowling Green.

A five years old child of Ida Taylor, colored, was accidentally shot by another negro child, Tuesday morning. The ball from a .22 rifle penetrated the fleshy part of the child's side, but the wound is not necessarily dangerous.

LAST LAP OF PEACE NOW NEARING END

The stage is rapidly being set for the final phase of the peace negotiations. Yesterday's plenary session of the Peace Conference stamped its approval on the covenant of the League of Nations, while to-day Germany's plenipotentiaries are expected to arrive at Versailles to join the members of the mission already there. Some points in the peace treaty to be presented the Germans are as yet unsettled, but it is considered that the clauses involved will shortly be ready for incorporation in the document, so that the completed treaty will be ready for the enemy delegates by the week's end.

Italy was not represented at the plenary session yesterday, but dispatches from Rome indicate the probability that her delegates will return to Paris after a brief period. The Italian Parliament will meet to-day, and it is expected that Premier Orlando will at once appear and lay before it the situation which arose at Paris when President Wilson made his public statement relative to Fiume and Dalmatian coast.

Action by the Parliament which will be, in effect, a mandate to the Orlando Ministry, will be requested, there being an effort to secure a unanimous vote on the resolution demanding that Italy's claim on the eastern coast of the Adriatic coast be recognized. If this is done it is probable that Premier Orlando and his colleagues will immediately reappear at Paris.

Advices from Rome state that the semi-official view of the situation there is that Italy has not definitely withdrawn from the Peace Conference, but has merely suspended participation. If the vote of the Italian Parliament is favorable to the position taken by Premier Orlando it is probable that the diplomatic battle will be resumed in Paris.

There is apparently no thought for the present at least, to annex Fiume to Italy by Parliamentary action, it being planned to demand action on the part of the conference.

The National Council at Fiume, however, has, according to report, handed over all the powers of the state and municipality to a representative of Italy there.

CONVENTION CALL

Pursuant to the call of the Republican State Central Committee, the Republican of Ohio county, Kentucky, are hereby called to meet in Mass Convention in the Court House at Hartford, Saturday, May 10, 1919, at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates and alternate delegates to represent said county in the State Republican convention to be held at Lexington, Ky., May 14th, 1919. OWENSBORO TOBACCO MARKET UP A LITTLE

The local tobacco market yesterday recovered from the slump which has been on for a few days, due probably to the good season. There were 37,375 pounds of Pryor sold yesterday for $5,702.82, at an average of $15.25. This average is considerably higher than those which have been prevailing for the past week, and a much larger amount of tobacco was disposed of. There were 2,775 pounds of Burley sold for $355.84 at an average of $12.82.

In the Eastern division the Lancaster sold 15,510 pounds of Pryor for $2,084.28, at an average of $15.44. The Daviess County house sold 2,235 pounds for $297.99, at an average of $13.33. The Equity Home disposed of 1,455 pounds for $233.70, which made an average of $15.37.

In the Western division the Owensboro led with a sale of 15,945 pounds of dark tobacco that brought an average of $17.61. For this the amount of $2,795.99 was paid out. Field Bros. sold 2,230 pounds of the same type at an average of $13.49. For this the growers received $300.84. The Electric house had no sale yesterday.

In the Eastern division the Lancaster will open sales this morning, with the Equity following and Daviess County closing.

In the Western division the Field Bros., will open, with the Electric following and Owensboro closing.

BOWLING GREEN AND OWENSBORO ROAD PLAN

Discussed At Big Meeting At Beaver Dam Last Saturday

The most important good roads meeting ever held in the county met at Beaver Dam, Saturday. The meeting had been called for the purpose of discussing plans for building a national post road from Owensboro to Bowling Green, by way of Hartford, Beaver Dam, Cromwell and Morgantown. The project originated in Hartford and Judge Cook called the fiscal officials of Daviess, Ohio, Butler and Warren to meet at Beaver Dam Saturday. The response to the call was ready and enthusiastic. County Judge Drake, of Warren county was present, and said only five miles of Warren's part of the proposed road remained to be built, and that his county was ready to complete its part of the road at once.

Judge Wells, county attorney, Birkhead, county engineer, Spurrier and commissioners Riney, Horn and Wilson, of Daviess, were on hand with a proposition to meet Ohio county, not only at the selected point of the proposed road, but at any other road it cared to build.

Butler county was present with more than fifty citizens, including Judge Haynes, Nat Howard, Rolla Keown, editor Itives, of the Green River Republican, bankers Carson and Doolin, and they were "rarin" to build the road.

A temporary organization was effected by electing Judge Mack Cook chairman and the editors present secretaries.

Speeches were delivered by Judge Wells, county attorney Birkhead and county road engineer Spurrier, of Daviess county, by Judge Haynes and Nat Howard, of Butler county, and by Judge Cook and county attorney Kirk, of Ohio county.

When the meeting closed it was apparent that the building of the road was assured provided Ohio county built its part. Daviess and Warren have their sections practically completed, Butler was there with responsible bankers to guarantee the building of the highway through Butler, and county attorney Kirk told the representatives of the sister counties to be of good cheer; that Ohio would connect the link.

A permanent organization was effected, the members of which are the active members of the fiscal courts of the four counties at interest.

TEN PUPILS GRADUATE FROM HIGH SCHOOLS

Superintendent Howard has forwarded to the state superintendent Gilbert, certificates of qualification for the graduation of ten pupils of Ohio county high schools. The graduates, with their ages and grades are:

Onrile Park 18, grade, four year average, 87.

AN OLD RESIDENTIAL.

In 1837 Mr. Bob Brown, a farmer living a few miles below town, on the river, discovered a rusty looking old terrapin, and while resting his team cut his initials and the date on the shell of the land mollusk. A few days ago Mr. Brown plowed up a terrapin, and remembering that he had once since seen the old '37 resident, examined its shell and found the initials and date as plain as it was when he whittled it there thirty two years ago. Mr. Brown's experience indicates that terrapins, like men, get rooted to the spot.

CALL, DONALD M. (10275) 2nd Lieutenant, (then Corporal) Co. B, Bn. Tank Corps.

FOR conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action with the enemy near Varennes, France, 26 September, 1918.

During an operation against enemy machine-gun nests west of Varennes, Lieutenant Call, then corporal, was in a tank with an officer when half of the turret was knocked off by a direct artillery hit. Choked by gas from the high explosive shell, he left the tank and took cover in a shell hole thirty yards away. Seeing that the officer did not follow, and thinking that he might be alive, Corporal Call returned to the tank under intense machine-gun and shell fire and carried the officer over a mile under machine-gun and sniper fire to safety.

NEW FACTORS WILL BE HEARD IN ELECTIONS

Twelve Million Women And Three Million Vets To Vote.

Washington, April 21.—As the soldiers return in greater numbers the political gossip centering around the coming presidential contest turns, in great emphasis, toward a soldier candidate. The recent statement issued by Gilford Pinchot, as a representative of the Progressive element, contains a number of prescribed presidential possibilities which, he thinks, will not be acceptable to the Middle West and the Progressives.

This statement emphasized that General Leonard Wood would meet approval of the Progressive element, as he fully represented the policies and views of Col. Roosevelt.

The discussion stimulated by this statement and the coming convention according to well wishers of Gen. Wood, has spread the Wood boom of the American Legion in St. Louis, wonderfully and made him one of the contenders for the Republican nomination. Strange to say, in this discussion, Gen. Pershing's name has not been mentioned with any persistency, but Washington is expecting Frank M. Hitchcock to return from Europe shortly and launch a Pershing boom.

New Elements Enter.

In the next presidential election there will be several new elements that have not entered into such a campaign in recent years. Fully 12,500,000 women, representing 26 States will be entitled to cast their ballots, and in eleven of these States women receive the privilege of voting for President for the first time. It is estimated that fully 2,500,000 returned soldiers will be home to participate in the 1920 election.

In the opinion of old-time political leaders the bulk of this vote will be cast under stimulus of an organized effort directed by the women and the soldier organizations, and, therefore, the prediction is made that the soldiers and women will have an important influence on the conventions and in the subsequent election.

So far, with President Wilson out of the country, aspirants for the Democratic nomination have not appeared with any such degree of seriousness as in the Republican ranks. Former Speaker Clark recently announced that he was willing to be a candidate and only last week a report came from Ohio that friends of Secretary of War, Baker are seeking some of the delegates from Ohio, where Gov. Cox has begun a determined fight for the Democratic delegates.

The belief is held by many that former Secretary McAdoo will not personally seek delegates although his friends will send a number of delegates to the convention for him.

TESTED THE STRENGTH OF NEW 2.75 P. C. BEER

That 2.75 per cent beer which the brewers are now making and with which they hope to get out from under the prohibition amendment, had its first tryout in a Newark restaurant last night, says the New York Times, when ten men drank ten sides each of the stuff. The test was conducted by Charles A. Rosewater, chief of the narcotic clinic of the Newark Health Department.

The sides which were given free to the fortunate ten, were the largest kind ever used in saloons, and each contained more beer than one can buy now for less than a quarter. The testers drank the sides during the course of an ample dinner, and at the conclusion of the test each claimed that the beer hadn't affected him in the least. The men were examined by Dr. Rosewater, who expressed the opinion that the 2.75 beer was not intoxicating, at least as far as these ten men were concerned.

Besides the examination by the physician there were other tests to determine if the ten men became intoxicated. Their conversation was listened to and found to be no more foolish than usual and then they were made to walk along a crack in the floor, which they did successfully. Then each man was asked to make a speech, and when each of them refused it was accepted proof positive that nobody was even the least bit drunk.

Do You Enjoy Life?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

NEGRO LYNCHED WHEN TRIAL IS POSTPONED

Forest City, Ark., April 23.—Sam McIntyre, a negro, was taken from the county jail by a masked mob last night and hanged to a telephone pole. McIntyre was charged with having murdered a negro farmer on February 4 last.

It is said the lynching was the result of indignation over the fact that McIntyre's lawyers recently obtained a postponement of his trial.

WHO WAS WON OVER?

The League to Enforce Peace has put forth the following:

"The opposition to the league of nations has been reduced to a point where the success of the proposal is no longer seriously questioned, proponents of the measure declared today. One of the strongest members of the group of senators who opposed the original draft, Senator Cummins of Iowa, has been won over to the support of the league."

This is about as disingenuous and deceptive a statement of the case as could be made. The inference intended is that the darkened intelligence of the opposition has been enlightened and "won over" to the league idea. Of course, nothing of the sort has taken place. To begin with, the "opposition" except for a small minority, was not opposition to a league of nations, but opposition to the particular covenant for a league of nations which Mr. Wilson adopted from its British draftsmen and put up to the American people with a virtual ultimatum against amendment.

The opposition to that covenant has not been reduced or altered. It is the covenant that has been altered. To say that Senator Cummins, who made one of the most effective assaults upon the original draft, has been won over is a plain falsification. It is the Paris conference, especially Mr. Wilson, that has been won over to the main objections of the opposition.

It does not matter in the long run which side was won over so long as we keep America's fingers out of the machinery of continental imperialism politics. But it does matter from the viewpoint of justice and immediate political judgement that what has happened shall not be observed and that credit shall go where it is due. It is not Mr. Wilson, who wanted the Paris covenant adopted without amendment, or Mr. Taft and Mr. Lowell and others, who would have accepted without amendment rather than refused, who forced its amendment in the interest of America and thus made it possible for us at least to consider its adoption in the amended form. It was Republican senators who signed the resolution against adoption without amendment, facing the abuse of blind Wilson partisans and of pacifists throughout the country.

By replying to Mr. Wilson's ultimatum with an ultimatum of their own, these senators forced the changes in the Paris covenant which have removed most of the dangerous features and hence naturally, in the same degree, removed opposition. We ought not to forget their names. They are:

Ball,	Delaware
Brandagee,	Connecticut
Borah,	Idaho
Calder,	New York
Cummings,	Iowa
Curtis,	Kansas
Dillingham,	Vermont
Edge,	New Jersey
Elkins,	West Virginia

Smoot,	Utah

Watson,	Indiana

Besides these Republican senators certain Democrats braved the charge of party disloyalty for the sake of our country's interest—namely: Senators Reed (Mo.), Thomas (Col.), Shields (Tenn.), Gore (Okla.), King (Utah), Myers (Mont.), and Chamberlain (Ore.).

Opposition to the Paris covenant as originally drawn has not been won over, but as a result of the public discussion since its publication the covenant seems to have been materially amended and clarified and, what is still more important to America, the American people have been brought to think about what their entrance into a league with Europe may mean to them and their children. We have been saved by the courageous critics of the covenant from going into the European jungle blindfolded.

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

Tappy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and that classy, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

Copyright 1918 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

PUT it flush up to Prince Albert to produce more smoke happiness than you ever before collected! P. A.'s built to fit your smokeappetite like kids fit your hands! It has the jimdandiest flavor and coolness and fragrance you ever ran against!

Just what a whale of joy Prince Albert really is you want to find out the double-quickest thing you do next. And, put it down how you could smoke P. A. for hours without tongue bite or parching. Our exclusive patented process cuts out bite and parch.

Realize what it would mean to get set with a joy'us jimmy pipe or the papers every once and a while. And, puff to beat the cards! Without a comeback! Why, P. A. is so good you feel like you'd just have to eat that fragrant smoke!

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.

Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organ troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. BINDER, Black River Falls, Wis.

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Binder that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce I. S. Mason a candidate for Representative of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Republican party at the primary election August 2, 1919.

We are authorized to announce George Baker, of Muhlenburg county a candidate for the nomination for State Senator in the 7th Senatorial district, composed of the counties of Muhlenburg, Butler and Ohio, subject to the action of the Republican party at the primary election, August 2, 1919.

We are authorized to announce Dr. T. G. Turner, of Muhlenburg County, as a candidate for the nomination for State Senator in the 7th Senatorial district, composed of Ohio, Butler and Muhlenburg counties, subject to the action of the Republican Party at the primary election to be held August 2nd., 1919.

The Kentucky School Text Book Commission needs an embalmer.

For the first time in the history of this country there is a vacancy in the presidency.

Some recent jury findings in the Ohio circuit court indicate that many unsuitable suits are brought.

Politics is the best investment in the world. Liberty bonds, or even Standard Oil stock, does not approach it in the matter of dividends.

With one nation already withdrawn from the peace conference the prospect for a league of nations to keep the peace looks none too rosy.

The good roads spirit is developing rapidly in Ohio county. Many voters who voted against the road tax only a few weeks ago now say they would vote for it if presented again.

It does not require a political economist to predict there is a long period of hard times ahead. A thirty billion dollar debt can not be paid without the country feeling it.

The stack of high-prices cards is going to take a big tumble before many more moons. There is no just excuse for prices now prevailing, and artificial prices once broken will come down in a heap.

Postmaster General Barleson now recommends that the telegraph and telephone lines be returned to their owners, but he offers no explanation of why he took them from their owners. He is simply surrendering under fire.

An Owensboro bar keeper, weary of answering inquisitive people about what he was going to do after the first of July placarded this sign, "Never mind what I am going to do after the first of July; what are you going to do?"

The Louisville Times says, "Under Mr. Barleson the telegraph and telephone lines were subject to as ignorant and dangerous a rule as that which has demoralized the postal service." And yet Wilson allows the blunderer to hold on.

The fiscal court will be urged to again submit the twenty cent road tax to be voted on at the August primary. The vote could be taken at the primary election without incurring any special expense to the taxpayers. Let us try it again.

As I am tired of the ex-Mother to be put on trial for trifling in the war. The best plan is to turn the trial court of one judge from each of the principal allied nations. About the only certain thing about the Kaiser's trial is that he will never be tried before any sort of international court.

One article of Wilson's League of Nations binds the American mother to send her son to the remote corners of the earth to fight and die in the settlement of disputes of unknown peoples, and more than ten million American mothers are voters now. We'll hear from them in 1920.

We are not commissioned to preach but we are led to mention that the scriptural injunction to train your children up in the way they should go and when they are old they will not depart from it, is the philosophy, which, if religiously followed, would insure the future justice and tranquillity of the world.

A text of the League of Nations, as agreed upon by the delegates, has been published. It is too long for publication in these columns, and we confess to an inability to write a brief synopsis of the document, and we seriously doubt if any member of the commission could do so in a manner that would make himself understood by the average reader.

The Owensboro Messenger does Judge Slack entirely too much honor in crediting him with presiding over a meeting here, at which Judge Carroll delivered a speech in the interest of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor. Judge Slack was presiding over the circuit court, and only extended Judge Carroll the courtesy of briefly addressing the circuit court crowd.

It appears now that postmaster general Barleson's controversy with the Postal Telegraph Company may be the occasion of his retirement from the cabinet. Perhaps no member of the president's cabinet, in the whole history of the government, has been so thoroughly incompetent to rightly perform the duties of his office, as Barleson. Charles J. Post, president of the Publishers' Advisory Board, thus briefly summarizes Barleson's incompetency: "Whether the postal service is good or bad is not a matter of argument or of Mr. Barleson's personal opinion. The public knows from its own experience, suffered day by day, from the camps in France to the commerce of France, and is evidenced by the impartial investigations and the resolutions of the most reliable business organizations of the country."

At a meeting at Beaver Dam Saturday, when fiscal representatives of Daviess, Ohio, Butler and Warren counties discussed the project for building a federal post road from Owensboro to Bowling Green, it became at once apparent that the road would be built if Ohio county supplied her part of the link. This road would put Ohio county on the map of good roads counties and would add many thousands of dollars to the value of Ohio county property. It will require money to build the road and our people must supply the money. It is not a gift, but an investment. The road can be built only if our business men and farmers along the route will take hold of the enterprise and push it. A few men can not build it. It will require all hands and the cook. The spirit of enterprise of our citizens is now on trial as it was never tried before. The federal and state governments will put up sixty per cent of the cost. Are our people willing to build an important post road at the trifling expense of forty cents to the dollar? We should be sorry indeed if they will neglect such a golden opportunity.

Mr. W. F. Grant, of Boyd county, was in Hartford the first of the week, to look after some property interest of his ward, a Miss Maddox. Twelve years ago Mr. Grant took the 10 years old daughter of Lonnie Maddox, of McHenry, from the State Children's home, and the girl, now a woman, still lives with him.

New Exchange Telephone Rates Effective May 1, 1919

A new schedule of telephone exchange rates became effective in Hartford, Beaver Dam, Rockport and Centertown, May 1 by direction of the Operating Board of the United States Telegraph and Telephone Administration, acting under the order of the Postmaster General of the United States.

As you know, all of the lines and property of this company are in the possession, control and are being operated by the United States Government under the direction of the Postmaster General of the United States.

The new rates are necessary in order that additional revenue may be secured by the government to meet the increased operating expenses. The causes which make greater telephone revenue necessary are due to the new conditions and the new price levels introduced by the war and are entirely beyond the control of the United States Telegraph and Telephone Administration or of the Telephone Company.

More than two years ago the Company foresaw that the telephone system would be operated at a loss unless the rates could be adjusted to meet the increasing costs of all elements entering into the production of service. A similar rate adjustment would have been unavoidable under private control and the new rate schedule is practically the same we would have sought in 1918 if the government had not taken possession of our property.

As stated by the Postmaster General, the owners of the telephone system do not benefit in any way from rate changes. Practically all of the increased operating expenses which require this additional revenue are due to increased wages paid to employees to enable them to meet the new conditions of life in the present day.

It is neither practicable nor desirable to reduce wages, and so far as wages are concerned we believe that portion of the increased operating expenses to be permanent.

The new rate schedule is fair and reasonable and the percentage of increased revenue which it will produce is much lower than the increased cost of other services and commodities of a similar character.

Complete detailed information about the new rates may be obtained at the manager's office. We are making every effort to change our records promptly, and your courteous consideration will be appreciated.

New in Beauty, Old in Virtues; This

MAXWELL

Has Stirred America

Men buying cars today are giving this present day Maxwell searching consideration. For where, this moment, can you get a car, like a Maxwell, the chassis of which has had a 300,000 manufacturing run and the beauty of which has been improved to an astonishing degree?

They're weighing the soundness of the 300,000-all-alike-for-five-years logic and they translate that into reliability supreme.

They know in their own business what changes in plan, in program, mean—how serious the losses in good will and profits—the dissatisfied customers.

Many of them have been "burned" by "new models" in days gone by, and have joined the "never again" club.

So this present day Maxwell has a deep appeal to them; and thousands since January 1 have reached for their check books as soon as they laid eyes on this new Maxwell.

Perhaps it is unfair to say "new" because the chassis is five years old in design. When we say "new" we mean its vastly improved appearance.

There are twenty-four things done to the Maxwell to make it better looking. Sharp angles have been removed; lines straightened; certain corners eliminated; bonnet vents increased in number; three more coats of paint added; fenders lowered; seats thickened three inches; a circassian dash installed; gas tank put in the rear, etc.

See the latest Maxwell, and you'll want one, too.

OHIO COUNTY MOTOR CO.

A. C. ACTON, Manager.

Mr. and Mrs. John King have returned from Ohio, where they went to see their son, Charlie, who was very sick of kidney trouble. Charlie and his wife and baby returned here with his parents, and will remain until he recovers.

We are now better equipped than ever before to furnish the people with ice. Have completed an up-to-date storage plant. Have 100 tons of ice in storage. Will have 125 tons in storage May 1st. We believe we will have plenty of ice of our own manufacture to supply all county demands. You remember what Gen. Hyng said to his men just before making the drive toward Cambrai. "Let every tank do its damndest." Ellis Ice Company is going to do its best to keep the people in ice. 4313

FARM DEPARTMENT.

April Is The Month.

During this month everything along poultry raising should be humming. Just now poultry raisers are dealing in futures, and your future depends on your good work now. Don't fuss; just let the chicks have plenty of liberty and keep their quarters clean. Standard-bred chicks can rough it as well as mongrels—even better. To those who are raising standard-bred chicks we advise: do not handicap them by unnatural restrictions. Let them hustle around. This tends to "Better Poultry" and to "Bigger Profits." Get in touch with your county or home agent for more details.

Feed Lime and Charcoal.

Ordinarily the hen does not consume enough lime to form the shells of eggs if she is laying abundantly unless something besides the ordinary grain feeds is necessary to her. Oyster shells are very good for this purpose. A box of crushed shells may be placed before the fowls, allowing them to eat at will. Old mortar and fine gravel are also useful in supplying lime. Charcoal has a great absorptive power for gasses, impurities, and acids, and thus acts as a corrective when the stomach is sour and digestion has been impaired.

An improvement in the conditions under which cows are kept on the average farm will greatly lessen the labor required in their care, make it more pleasant, and at the same time cause the cows to produce more milk.

Feeding Grain To Calves.

When the calf is in its second week it should begin to receive grain, and when one month old it should eat about half a pound a day. After this time the quantity of grain may be gradually increased, feeding all that the calf will eat until 3 pounds a day is reached, probably during the third month. Grain fed to supplement separated milk should never be mixed with the milk. It is questionable whether the preparation of grain in any way, such as soaking or boiling is advisable under most circumstances.

Wheat bran is eaten readily by young calves. Corn has an excellent effect and to a great extent may take the place of fat removed from skinned or separated milk. Experiments tend to show that corn fed to calves should be cracked rather than finely ground. Ground oats are good in grain mixtures when available, but in many cases cost much more per unit of feed than corn and bran. The following grain mixtures are recommended by dairy specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture:

- (1) Three parts cracked corn and one part wheat bran.
- (2) Three parts cracked corn, one part wheat bran, and one part ground oats.
- (3) Three parts cracked corn, one part wheat bran, one part ground oats and one part linseed meal.
- (4) Oats, ground.

Clover hay, alfalfa hay, or the most palatable roughage available should be given the calf after the second week. Alfalfa is likely to cause scours, and should be fed sparingly at first and increased only after the calf gets accustomed to it. At first hay should be furnished only a handful at a time, and be placed so that it can not be soiled. For the first six months, at least, the calf should receive all the roughage of good quality that it will eat up clean. When the calf has access to good pasture during the first six months it need not receive other roughage. It is not advisable, however, to have the calf under 2 months of age on pasture in the early spring.

The tomato is closely related to the potato, and while the actual food value of the tomato is not so great as that of the potato, it has certain qualities that make it one of the most desirable of our garden crops.

A good way to handle the shelves in the kitchen and pantry is to paint or enamel them. Painted shelves can be wiped with a damp cloth every day if need be. Shelves covered with paper are less apt to be cleaned as frequently as is needed, and are always a bid for dust and vermin.

The poultry house should be built as low as possible without danger of the attendants bumping their heads against the ceiling. A low house is more easily warmed than a high one.

In the location of the poultry house, if it is impracticable to select a soil that is naturally dry it should be made dry by thorough drainage.

Hay stackers can be used to advantage on many farms east of the Mississippi River as well as west.

Even a well-grown crop of sweet potatoes may lose much market value by lack of proper care in digging, handling, and preparation for market. Precaution must be observed when digging and handling to prevent a well-grown product from becoming unsightly through the presence of cuts, bruises and other defects.

Among the vegetable oils, that made from cottonseed stands in a class by itself with respect to its production in this country. In 1917 it constituted 73 per cent, and in 1917, when the cotton crop was unusually short, 61 per cent of the total production.

A garden that produces only one crop and kills away half of the growing season does only half of its duty.

The bunch beans mature quickly and require frequent cultivation. The cultivator should be run through the rows at least once a week and then the hoe be drawn between the hills after cultivation. Never work beans when their foliage is wet with dew or rain.

PACUHAN DRUGGIST TELLS WHY MENDENHALL'S CHILL TONIC OUT-SELLS ALL OTHERS

"Mr. J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind., Dear Sir: You ask us if we are disposing of the one gross Mendenhall's Chill and Fever Tonic we have been purchasing from you monthly at retail as this is an unusual quantity for a retail druggist to buy. For your information, will state that our best physicians are prescribing your chill tonic almost daily with better results than quinine or any medicine used for malaria, chills and fever. We have a customer who was all run down, pale and emaciated and had a cough. Some physicians pronounced his case consumption. One of the doctors here prescribed a bottle of your chill tonic. He took it with the best results and continued it for some time and is now entirely well. He had a cough and chronic malaria. We find upon inquiry that the jobbers here purchase 50 gross of your chill tonic a year which, with our purchases, amount to over 8,000 bottles a year, which are sold in the city of Pacuahan." Signed Lang Bros., Druggists. Mendenhall's Chill Tonic has all the properties of ordinary quinine without the bad effects, combined with glycerine, licorice and yerba santa, which makes it at once the best remedy for coughs, colds and grippe. Price 50 cents.

Sold by Ohio County Drug Company, Incorporated.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE SURE AT EXTRA SESSION

By Snell Smith.
Washington, April.—One of the very first measures to be introduced, considered and enacted by the new Republican Congress will be a resolution for an amendment of the Constitution which will provide universal suffrage for all women throughout the country, subject only to the same restrictions as are now imposed upon the men.

Representative James R. Mann, of Illinois, who made possible the passage of the resolution in the House in the last Congress by getting out of a sick bed at the Johns Hopkins University Hospital and contributing a much needed vote, will be chairman of the Committee on Woman Suffrage and will report and put through the measure within a few days after the extra session begins. He and other party leaders are perfectly certain of a safe majority, due to the fact that the States which swelled the Republican total at the last election are, for the most part, favorable to extending the suffrage to women.

"The sentiment for the enfranchisement of women has been growing steadily for years, except in certain Southern States," said Representative Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, the new majority leader. "The opposition no longer represents a majority of the people over any considerable area anywhere. The granting of the franchise to women is now very generally recognized as a wise and proper, if not a vitally essential step in making the government truly responsive to the intelligent judgment of the people. The Republican party, as the leader of progressive thought, as the champion of moral principles, as the defender of genuine democracy, has taken the lead in urging the extension of the right of the ballot to women, and will take the first opportunity afforded after Congress again meets to demonstrate the sincerity of the party faith in this regard.

Changes made in the Senate, which the Republicans now control by two votes, have made it certain that the suffrage amendment will be adopted by that body by a majority of two or three. It failed last February by one vote. The domination of the South, where the fight against the movement has centered, is over. Senator Johnson, chairman of the Woman Suffrage Committee in the Senate, has counted noses and is assured that before the summer is past the amendment will be passed to the President for his signature and to the States for ratification.

HOW RULE OF REDS DERAILED THEIR WOMEN

London, April 15.—The law provided for the nationalization of women in Northern Russia has been suspended in one province as the result of popular outcry, according to information reaching London from Stockholm.

The Commissar of Vladimir has, by decree, appointed a committee of women who are to inquire into the operations of the law and make a report with the least possible delay. His action has been approved by the local Soviet.

The Krasnaya Gazeta publishes an account of the results of nationalization. The system provides that every girl on reaching the age of 18 must register her name in the Bureau of Free Love, after which she is compelled to select a partner from among men between 19 and 50 years old. The law led to lamentable confusion, says the Gazette, in "judicial notions as to personal inviolability."

Strange Men Take Girls.

A few days after the Soviet's decree, which women very generally ignored, two men known to nobody, arrived in the town and seized the two daughters of "a well-known non-Bourgeois-comrade," declaring they had chosen them as wives and that the girls, without further ceremony must submit, as they had not observed the registration rule.

"Comrades Yablonski and Gurlikin," who sat as Judges on the claim, decided that the men were right and the girls were carried off. They have not since been heard of by the folk.

This, says the Gazette, was done in the name of the nationalization of women.

Many other instances of the fantastic operation of the law, not to speak of its inhumanities, are cited by the Gazette. Enthusiasts for nationalization, naturally all miles, raid whole villages, seize young girls and demand proof that they are not over 18. As this proof is difficult to give, many of the girls are carried off and there have been suicides and murders as a result.

In the town of Kovrov, a campaign without parallel since the Trojan war was waged between the vengeful relatives of an abducted nationalized girl and her prosecutors.

In this town, the "regis- of nationalized women" was opened, on December 1st, but up to February 1st only two women, both over 40 and neither of them had ever been married, registered themselves as willing to accept the first husband the State sent along.

On the committee which is now to revise the nationalization decrees or to recommend its complete abrogation

THE BUSINESS MAN'S VIEW OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Criticism No. 2.
After the pupil has graduated from the school-room and taken a few courses in the "school of hard knocks" or in the "university of life," he begins to realize that the school which he attended, no matter in what grade, seems to have been founded upon the idea that "education" is "instruction;" that is to say, that his parents seemed to have "sent him to school" in order that he might be "instructed," and that his teachers seemed to think their one primary duty was to convey "instruction" to the mind of the pupil, help him or, if you please, compel him to gain knowledge, much of which, he finds later he was never able to utilize in any practical way to the end of winning life's battle.

The business man, especially one who becomes an employer, gradually wakes up to the fact that education is really education, development, unfoldment, and that instruction alone or the gaining of knowledge will not boget education. The business men of the country are rapidly coming to see that the true function of commerce is to render service as a whole, and that the profits we make in business is the pay we get for the service that we render.

We are beginning to realize that it is true of ourselves as employers, and true of everybody whom we employ, that the efficiency of the individual does not depend upon his knowledge—it does not alone depend upon what he knows—it depends far more upon what the individual is, and what he or she is depends, in turn, upon the degree of unfoldment or development of certain faculties and capacities and qualities and powers in the individual. To illustrate what I mean by an example, a book-keeper might know all there is to be known, if such a thing were possible, about the science of accounting, but if he were lacking the development of such qualities as discrimination, ethics, accuracy, and speed, he would still be a very inefficient bookkeeper.

One of our salesmen might be a very learned man in the ancient languages and higher mathematics, but if lacking in such qualities as tact and good judgment and loyalty and honesty and many others which I might mention, he would probably send in mostly "weather reports" instead of orders. I feel, therefore, as a business man—and in this opinion I know I am not alone—that our schools should take steps to do some really constructive work in the matter of teaching the science of man-building, which, of course, includes the science of character-building.

I am thoroughly convinced that this can be done. I have been led to this conclusion, not on account of anything that I have studied in school books, but through studies which I have been my privilege to pursue since entering the "school of life" and while employed in the vocation of commerce. The wish frequently comes to me, as I am engaged in certain studies which I pursue at home, that I might have learned some of these things when I was in the school-room.

Possibly I might sum up Criticism No. 2 in a statement which, to some of you, as educators, may seem too sweeping, but which, I believe, will stand the test of careful analysis. It is this: taken as a whole, our school system, imported as it was from the old world, and designed originally for the classes and not for the masses, was founded upon an utterly false belief, the evil consequences of which have been far-reaching, and this false belief is that "education" is "instruction."

According to the Latin root from which the word "education" springs, I need but to remind you, as educators, of the fact that its true meaning is "education."

The scientific cultivation of the human plant being the true function of our school rooms, they should be, and will be in time, laboratories for the development of man-power.

Business men—many of them at least—have come to see that business, taken as a whole, is man-power plus money-power plus mechanical-power and the utilization of material forces and things; but we have also come to see that man-power is the cause, while money and the efficient utilization of all mechanical and material things are effects.

We, therefore, wish that the young men and the young women of the nation could come to us from our schools further advanced in the development of the kinds of man-power which make for efficient service.

We desire this not from a selfish standpoint alone, by any manner of means, but for the good of the boys and girls themselves and for the good of civilization as a whole.

Velvet

SMOOTHEST
SMOKING
TOBACCO

"WHEN I go fishin' I want fish that bite, and tobacco that don't."

Velvet Joe

"Bite" in tobacco comes either from poor leaf or wrong "ripening."

We use for VELVET only the finest Kentucky
Burley. But we don't stop there.

We put millions of pounds of this tobacco away every year, in wooden hogsheds, for Nature to patiently ripen and mellow.

There are quicker ways, but they leave some teeth in.

The VELVET way makes the friendlier kind of tobacco. You can always go to it for comfort without a "come-back."

Cigarette

VELVET'S nature-aged mildness and smoothness make it just right for

STRAY STREAKS

(By Fluke McFluke.)

When it comes to boosting for good roads, County Judge, Mack Cook, can always be relied upon for fielding and battling a thousand.

Just about the time I was feeling easy like and care-free, from worrying with John Henry, Mrs. Thomas goes back to Louisville, and thus, heaps of trouble are again dumped on my shoulders and I've got to go through it again. Gee! but I don't know what I've done or failed to do that my lot in life must be so hard,
and at times seemingly unbearable.
It's almost enough to drive one to the drink of coccol.

Along with Washington's birthday, Independence day, emancipation and groundhog day, July the first day, will also go down in history as some day, long to be remembered, but the most of we old hardshells will go into sackcloth and ashes, instead of joyfully celebrating the remembrance of this day, which we will look upon as a ghost, most pleasant forgotten.

Editor Thomas has taken rooms with Howard Ellis since Mrs. Thomas returned to Louisville, and we asked Howard how he managed to put up with John Henry, and if he didn't bother him a lot coming in late of nights, but Ellis says Thomas was not much trouble along the late line stuff, as he was what most people would call an early rooster, that is, he usually meets Thomas coming in to hit the hay along about the time he gets out of mornings.

Barring death, the weather and other elements, among which maybe, my wife's will may figure in the matter, when you guys read this stuff, if you do, I'll be on my way to Grassy or some other down the river point with three as fine and true old sports as could ever be found in bone-dry territory, for a week's fishing. And I wish now and here, to warn all good people against believing any thing of whatsoever kind or character you may see in this sheet concerning either myself or my Pals, 'cause it is all lies, intended only to defame good names and lower our high characters.

That lying story of the cat fishing, concocted by Steve May, aided and abetted by Thomas, has caused 19 boys, three men, two old maids and one grasswidow to call this office, enquiring as to how and where they can get in seed of this particular stock of cats. No person who ever heard of Thomas and Steve May would, for a moment, believe in any such tall, as this of the cat.

LETTER TO BROTHER.

St. Aignan-Noyers, France.
April 9th., 1919.

Mr. Carl Fraim,
Rockport, Ky.

Dear brother:—Will write you a few lines this noon to let you know that I am in the best of health and hope this will find you and all the rest the same and enjoying life. We are sure having fine weather here now, just like our Spring weather back in the States. Hope you are having fine weather there too.

I sure did enjoy myself while away on my leave wish I could have had seven months at St. Mato instead of seven days, that is if I have to be in France that much longer, but here is hoping that the time will soon come when I am to bid France adieu, but at present I haven't the least idea when I will get started back home.

Bert Barnard is in this camp now.
I saw him a few evenings ago, and he was around last night to see me but I was out and didn't get to see him.

He is here on a Special Order for return to the States for immediate discharge. Can say he is sure lucky and wish I could get an order of that kind and get out of France "Toot Sweet."

I had a letter from Arthur a few days ago. He is still in Germany and says that he doesn't see much chance for them to get out any ways soon.
They are attached to the 32nd Div., but that they are not expecting to get to go home when they go.

Bert was telling me that he heard
Mr. Kevill had bought out Mrs. Her's store, also of quite a few other changes there in Rockport. He was telling me that Walter Maddox is stationed at LeMans, but I don't know his address. How often do they hear from John Rander? I haven't heard from him since I came overseas, although I have written him quite a number of times.

What are all out home doing?
Suppose that Pa and Dayton are farming quite a bit by now. How is Ma and Grandun getting along now?
Is Mr. Turner going to farm there on the place this year? If I was Pa I would have every acre that I could possibly tend this time, are they going to put out any tobacco?

Well, as it is getting time for me to get busy with my work I will now go, so write me every chance you have for it looks as though I have just quit getting mail now.

Your brother,
ROY FRAMM.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

BEADS ODDLY STRUNG

(By I. D. Claire.)

The inspired writer who used the simile of the camel going through the eye of a needle to illustrate somethin' hard to do, hadn't tried to git through the Narrows exchange.

It must a bin a long time sence
Eck Rial went to Sunday school.
Eck was helpin' me to move, and when he saw a big portrait of the Messiah he said "I bet that was a mighty good man. Was it your father?"

Miss Tinsley ast me over the phone if Tins could help her in the garden chuesday, and I said yes three times before Tins could git me stopped.
After studyin' a while Tins said he had about a drink npiece for us left but he'd give me both of 'em if I'd call the Missus and tell her a lot of work had come in and I'd need him at the office. I tuck him up, but got the drink first and then had an attack of remorse of conscience and wouldn't call her. Well, I'm stayin' in now, nursin' a black eye.

Bat Nall come in the mornin' of the big frost and told me and Fluke all his grapes was dead as grains of shot.
While we was all sittin' in gloom and despair shoe fixer Leach come in and said the frost didn't matter, as the vines would grow out agin. It looked too good to be true, and as Leach is a stranger here, I ast him if he was reliable, and it seemed to sorty make him mad. Then we all inquired aroun' about Leach and they say he is pritty good at tellin' the truth and fixin' shoes and knows a heap about grapes.

The trials of a editor ain't what you think it is. He don't give a continental about the cussins he git; it's when a rale pritty girl tells him somethin' she wants put in the paper and it ain't worth printin' that he goes on the worry block.

Fluke leaves this mornin' for a week at the mouth of Grassy. I'll be darnation glad when he gits the surplus fishin' sorty out of his system so's he'll be halfway fit to associate with for a while.

Uncle Alex Curtis is teachin' a chamfleur school for young ladies.
He just hears his class on Sundays.

Late Seasons Are Acts of Providence

but late buying is a fault of yours. We have a full line now but when the rush comes our stock will be depleted, so why delay? Come in and see our tractor binders, grain drills and plows.
Also the horse drawn implement. While butter fat is selling at 64 cents per pound and your cows at their best in milk production its an ideal time to let us demonstrate the money making qualities of the world standard cream separator, the De-Laval. 98 per cent of the creameries of the United States are using the DeLaval, WHY? Another car of buggies this week, both Hercules and Delker. Come in and
